From the Pastor's Desk

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

There still seems to be much fear and confusion surrounding the Holy Father's recent encyclical, 'Fiducia Supplicans'. I will refer you to my homily on this topic on the Fourth Sunday of Advent, the link to which can be found on our St. Dorothy's website, and the excellent article written by Msgr. Winslow, entitled, 'Fiducia Supplicans': What is all the chatter about?, which can be found on our diocesan website, in the Catholic News Herald. I will not here repeat the explanation of this encyclical as provided in these two, sufficient resources, however, I would like to explain, once again, why there is nothing to fear in the current state of the Church.

Many of you have said that our Holy Father, Pope Francis has caused much confusion and division in the Church by many of his actions and statements, throughout his papacy. While this may, in part be true, I would still like to disagree with this assertion. The confusion and division in the Church of Christ has been present since before the Second Vatican Council. The Church's problems have been festering for many decades now. Like a cancer, they have been growing in secret, hidden from the senses of the average person, but, after so long a time, the cancer has metastasized and it is no longer possible to ignore all of the symptoms and signs of its deadly presence.

What is this cancer, you may ask? It is the unacceptable lack of fidelity to Jesus Christ and his Church of many of her members; laymen, religious, and clergy. Many of you do not know your Church history well, even our recent Church history. The heretical bishops and priests and religious and laymen have been a growing in number in the Church for the last 100 years. And, it is not only one, individual heresy that they all espouse. All you have to do, for a clear example, is look at the statistics which point out how few 'catholics' actually believe in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. However, there are many, other false beliefs, too many to be numbered here. These Church "members" are an unhealthy growth and must be cut out, for the good of the Body.

Parish News & Events

Please do not forget that many of the heretical bishops were elevated by St. John Paul II, himself. That does not mean that he was complicit in their infidelity, but it does imply that even saintly popes can make mistakes. Even the saints are not perfect. Only God is perfect. The only thing Pope Francis has done, by his own strengths and weaknesses is bring to light all of those who are not truly, faithful members of Christ's Church, sheep of his flock. The 'confusion' that he seems to be inciting is simply bringing that cancer to light. And, why would the Holy Spirit want this to happen? Why would God want all of these heretics to publicly reveal themselves? Remember, they have been hiding in the Church for many decades. Because, the only way to remove cancer is to cut open the body, so that it may become visible and be more easily removed.

I do not know if Pope Francis is doing this intentionally, or if the Holy Spirit is simply using his weaknesses to bring about this great good without his knowledge, but I do know that the Holy Father cannot lead the faithful astray. Those of us who are true sheep within the flock of Christ hear his voice, and follow him. We do not follow the voices of false shepherds. [John 10: 1-16] Since the Holy Father is the chief shepherd of the flock, under Christ, our fidelity to him is an intrinsic necessity. As the Vicar of Christ and pastor of the entire Church he has the full, supreme and universal authority over the whole Church, which he can always exercise unhindered. [CCC, pg 882] Our unity with Christ Jesus is dependent upon our unity with the Holy Father. The Second Vatican Council's document, Lumen Gentium, states: "The pope, Bishop of Rome and Peter's successor, 'is the perpetual and visible source and foundation of the unity both of the bishops and the whole company of the faithful.'" If we separate ourselves from the Holy Father, then we separate ourselves from Christ.

So, you may ask, why is Pope Francis not removing the "cancer". I cannot answer that question, but I can say that it might not be his role in the plan of God. The Holy Father is clearly making it easier to see who the cancerous members of the Church are, but, maybe the Holy Spirit will raise up the next pope to perform the necessary surgery.

I will end with a pastoral reminder, quoting St. Padre Pio: "Pray, hope and do not worry."

To Jesus through Mary,

*Rev. Fr. David Miller
Pastor*

Baptismal & Confirmation Sponsors:

Many people call or come to the office seeking a sponsor letter from the Church. Sponsors, a Godparent for Baptism of Sponsors for confirmation, by church law. They have to be Catholics in good standing. That means they are registered in a parish, practicing their faith by weekly attendance at Mass and regular reception of sacraments, must have been married through the church. Such qualities provide a good and objective framework for fulfilling the role of a catholic sponsor whose first duty is to assure the Catholic formation and education of the child.
